

Agenda

Saturday, May 15, 2021 | 7:30 AM - 4:30 PM

Live Online Learning

7:30 am	Welcome & Breakfast
8:00 am	Introduction & Module 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Ordering Tests and Imaging Wisely▪ Practice good stewardship and avoid over-imaging (in this context, back and thyroid imaging)▪ Seek out an interdisciplinary consensus▪ Build consensus with the patient
10:00 am	Break (15 minutes)
10:15 am	Module 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Shared Decision-Making▪ Define shared decision-making▪ Use reliable online resources to support the implementation of shared decision-making▪ Discuss the role of statins in preventing cardiovascular disease▪ Develop an approach to the prevention of fragility fractures
11:45 am	Lunch
12:45 pm	Module 3 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Over-Diagnosis and Cancer Screening• Understand why overdiagnosis is an intrinsic feature of the screening process and recognize the inherent biases associated with screening studies• Distinguish between screening risks for different cancers• Review the evidence on screening for specific cancers• Become familiar with “Weak/Conditional” recommendations, which require shared decision-making
2:45 pm	Break (15 minutes)
3:00 pm	Module 4 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Polypharmacy and Deprescribing• Understand the impacts of polypharmacy• Develop an evidence-based approach to deprescribing• Find tools to support deprescribing common medications: PPIs, benzodiazepines, etc.
4:30 pm	Finish